Headline:

A bright but chilly Christmas Day.

This Evening and Tonight:

Drier this evening and low cloud breaking to allow some clear spells overnight. Becoming cold with a touch of frost in rural areas. Isolated showers after midnight, these wintry inland. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Saturday:

A cold, dry, bright start to Christmas Day morning. Long sunny periods through daylight hours and it should remain dry. Feeling cold with a brisk easterly breeze. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:

Cloudier Boxing Day with morning rain and snow, snow mainly on hills, easing later then less cold. Monday and Tuesday, often rather cloudy, some showers, still rather cold. Lighter winds.
